

The Department of Political Science and Niagara Action for Animals presents

Camille Labchuk

Animal Rights Lawyer
Executive Director, Animal Justice

Tuesday, November 6th
7:00 pm
South Block 204

The Rise of Animal Rights Law in Canada

Most people are outraged by stories about animal abuse, yet paradoxically, Canada has the worst animal protection laws in the western world. But with animal issues currently grabbing news headlines, it has become impossible for the legal system to ignore their suffering. This talk will explore the legal status of animals in Canada and how each of us can play a role in improving the laws protecting them.